

THE WALLS ARE TALKING BACK

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

OPENSOURCE Art will be displaying the work of underground and anonymous stencil artists in an attempt to raise awareness of stencil art. Stencil artists risk arrest and challenge censorship to make their voices heard. Displayed works will come from a wide variety of artists and show a multiplicity of styles and topics, from the personal to the political to the simply stunning.

Submission deadline: July 29, 2005 (12-7pm drop-off at OPENSOURCE)

Show dates: August 4-15, 2005

Opening reception: August 4, 2005, 6-10pm

Submission guidelines:

- stencils may be submitted and installed by the artist
- stencils may be submitted with installation instructions
- photo documentation of stencils may be submitted
- any combination of these

Submissions may be sent via postal service, email or delivered in person.

OPENSOURCE Art
12 E. Washington
Champaign, Illinois 61820

Please email opensource@boxwith.com or zoe@riseup.net with any questions.

NOTE: If you would like your submission returned, please include a self-addressed package with sufficient return postage in the form of stamps. Materials that cannot be returned will become donations to OPENSOURCE. OPENSOURCE is not responsible for lost or damaged material.